

Ajay Kumar Garg Institute of Management (AKGIM) Ghaziabad organized SEBI sponsored workshop on financial Literacy under the series: "Beyond Class rooms"

AKGIM always believes in teaching beyond class rooms and conducts number of events throughout the year to facilitate the learning by students in a practical way.

Dr. Sharad Ranjan an expert in the field was deputed by SEBI to conduct the proceedings at AKGIM campus.

The response from various Institutes in the NCR was excellent and they sent their students and faculties to seize golden opportunity in learning the finer points of capital markets and financial planning.

The main objective of the workshop was to increase financial literacy among the youth so that they are able to take sound investment decisions and plan at an early age to meet their financial goals.

It was an initiative of Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) to increase participation from all cross section of society and also to help the investors understand the precautions to be taken while investing.

The workshop was free of charge and was appreciated by 80 participants.

This workshop was organized by Prof. S.K Thukral and C.A Neeta Sahu in co-ordination with S.S Srivastav.

