11. Grievance redressal mechanism for faculty, staff and students

The Institute follows an open and free communication policy for faculty and staff members. All personnel are free to convey their grievances verbally or in writing through the person in charge Grievance Redressal Committee. All personnel are free to report the grievances directly to the Director. The institute maintains complete confidentiality for such grievances. Depending on the nature of the grievance, the matter is investigated for establishment of facts and action is taken accordingly. In case the grievance is considered to be of serious/general nature affecting a group of personnel, the matter is put up in the Governing Council for consideration.

As regards the students, each class has a Student Representative who can be approached for any problem and grievance. In addition to the faculty, Proctor/ Dean Academics and Director are also readily approachable to all students. The Director also conducts regular meetings with students whereby students from a specific group are invited for informal discussions. These forums have proved very useful in obtaining genuine students feedback and grievances. Suggestion/Complaint box has also been installed in the campus or mail on grievance@akgim.edu.in.
